

Embrace This Gift

It may feel scary right now, but there were times in the past that felt scary too. You did more than just survive.

You conquered that fear.

You are made for this moment and the world needs YOU.

Right now.

You don't have to climb. If you stay where you are, you'll never feel the pain of falling, but you may feel the pain of getting left behind as others make the climb... and you'll never get to see the view from the top.

You are right to protect the precious light that shines inside you, but a light grows stronger when it is shared. No one said you have to do it by yourself.
